

BUSY DAY AT THE BOOK SALE

We were blessed with a glorious afternoon for Liz and Keith's garden book sale. During the last week or so they had received lots of donations of books from members and so their back garden was chock full of a whole variety of books for sale.

All afternoon they had a steady stream of members browsing and buying books as well as taking the opportunity to catch up with friends they had not saw for a long time.

All told it was a very pleasant afternoon and at the end of it they had collected £82 for the u3a funds. Liz and Keith want to thank everyone who donated and who turned up to browse through and buy the books. And thanks go to them for so efficiently organising the sale and allowing us to invade their garden!!

APPEAL FOR VOLUNTEERS

Is anyone interested in volunteering at Ainsdale Clinic behind Hirshmans Chemist, it is only stewarding not jabbing, the shifts are 4 hours long there are 3 volunteers on at any one time, you can do as many or as few as you like, they are vaccinating 7 days a week most weeks so there is plenty to choose from.

With your help it will keep the clinic flowing so the vaccinators can keep vaccinating.

I like to think that so many of us have our jabs with the help of the younger volunteers who have had to go back to work or study, can repay the favour.

The person to contact is Lyn Hilton on 07821 313013 or email lynhilton17@gmail.com

My neighbor just banged on the wall at 4:20am, can you believe that? Lucky I was still up playing music. He banged and shouted, "Can we have a little respect, please?" So I shouted back, "I'm not a big Aretha Franklin fan, but ok this one's for you".

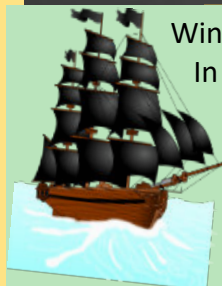

When somebody mentions deadly animals what do you think about? Lions? Vipers? Tarantulas?
